

USE OF WATER

The convenience of having fresh water so available in a situation as remote and arid as Leigh Creek is one which should not be abused.

Use the water you need wisely - DON'T WASTE IT.

Remember that the use of garden sprinklers is BANNED each Wednesday. Hand sprinkling only is permitted on Wednesdays to allow the million gallon tank, gravitated, to be replenished. from which our town water is

At all times endeavour to water at night. This will reduce evaporation from the garden which in turn reduces the salinity build up in the soil. Use a mulch of grass cuttings, leaves, wood chips or creek gravel to help keep the ground moist.

You can help avoid water restrictions in the summer by using good sense and rules regarding the use following these few simple of water.

CARE OF DOMESTIC AIR COOLERS

Full benefit from your water cooled air cooler can be gained if you follow the following simple rules:

AQUACOOLER TYPE

Drain water at least twice per week during hot weather.

Hose out tray to remove silt once per week. To remove silt from the tray it needs to be stirred with a long stick or similar while draining. Access to the cooler is through the inspection plate on the side and you should not interfere with any internal workings - any fault should be reported. Make sure you switch your water cooled air if you follow the fol-

Tickets available from 1st December from Pistol Club Committee members. Proceeds for the Pistol Club Building Fund. Results drawn at Canteen on 9/ 3/76. "BE IN IT TO WIN"

SCHOOL RAFFLE WINNER - Mrs A Bogucki has won the lovely Peacock painting (by Mrs H Andrews).

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr John R TAYLOR who received his 20 year ETSA service badge on 7/11/75.

Best wishes to MARISA SBONA who has recently commenced her nursing career at the Royal Adelaide Hospital.

We were very sorry indeed to hear of the sudden death of Mr ANGUS MCKENZIE 11/11/75. 'Mr Mac' was the Proprietor of the Parachilna Hotel for many years and was well known to most people of the District. We extend sincere sympathy to his family.

Nice to see Chiton and Jenny WALLS back in town for a short holiday. Chiton & Jenny spent a few days with Ray & Brenda Gray.

FAREWELL PARTY - An invitation is extended to friends and relatives of Mrs JOYCE CALLIS (specially Netball members) to attend a farewell party on SATURDAY, 6th December at 20 Fifth Street East (Heinrich residence). Ladies are requested to bring a plate of supper along. Joyce has been in the District a long time and will be greatly missed (on the Netball courts in particular). We wish Joyce and daughter Natalie the very best of luck for their future life in Queensland.

BINGO - YULU LOUNGE - TUES, 25th Nov.

Nice to see Mrs LAUREN Reeves (ne DORTON) back in Leigh Creek again after many years of absence. Lauren has been visiting with her family and we know her stay was a very happy one.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr Allan JAMES who has been appointed Stores Supervisor, Transport (Mile End). Allan, Maureen and family will depart for the big smoke around the first week in January and we extend our very best wishes to them all.

ST JOHN

The LC Division of the St John Ambulance Brigade wishes to thank the Committees of the Northern Branch of the Liberal Party and the Beltana Sport & Social Progress Association for the very generous donations recently received from them.

DON'T BE ALARMED - a simulated drowning exercise will be carried out at the swimming pool on SUNDAY, 23 November at approximately 2.00pm. This exercise is carried out at the start of each swimming season so that the pool attendant and the ambulance crews are familiar with the emergency procedure.

LEIGH CREEK SCOUTS PARENTS
COMMITTEE

An extract from a letter received from Cellulose Australia Ltd reads as follows:-

"Over the last six months our Industry has been severely curtailed in Production by the current economic situation.

This has resulted in a cut in purchasing waste paper for the next 6 months.

Until further notice, we will only be purchasing newspaper and magazines, definitely no cardboard, shop or Industrial waste paper.

Yours faithfully,

Cellulose Aust Ltd"

On behalf, and for the parents committee, I would like to extend our thanks to the residents of Leigh Creek and surrounding area for their support in the past in supplying us with waste paper. Unfortunately we cannot store paper for safety and hygiene reasons, so it is with regret that we have to cancel paper collections for 6 months.

This does not mean we are giving up, because like a good scouting Committee, we fall back on our Motto "BE PREPARED" - and come up with our latest idea. We ask now that you save your bottles for us and if you require a crate please let us know.

Once again the Leigh Creek Dramatic Club has provided an evening of delightful family fun with its production "Friends and Neighbours" by Austin Steele. It was pleasing to note the number of children at the performance despite the occasional bellows which seemed not to distract the enrapt audience nor the Cast.

Top marks Bob Docking for the selection of an excellent play and for the obvious skill displayed in the fusion of complex slapstick movements and situations with funny throw away lines.

After a slow beginning saved by stealing of strawberries from a cake, by Doris Holmes (Nora Renshaw) the play rollicked along with the audience finding fun in all conceivable situations and lines. Lily Grimshaw (Brenda Gray) presented very well as the badgering wife despite a few lost lines while Susan, her daughter (Christine Fraser) was more successful once she "lost" her accent which was not well developed. But clarity of diction and composed, assured movement were notable in this character.

With the entrance of Albert Grimshaw (Alex Gibson) the play took on a new dimension only to be further boosted with the later entrance of Sebastian Green (Ray Gray). It became immediately obvious to all, the outstanding ability and hard work displayed in the lines, actions and facial expressions of Albert.

Careful planning of by plays with salt and pepper shakers, sofas, kneeflexing and bulging eyes and chin kept the audience in laughter incessantly.

Sincerely,

L.A. STANGROOME
President Parents

* (cont..

*REVIEW REVIEW Wilf Solmes (Philip Hiscock) was the ideal counterpoint to Albert often providing support in funny lines and situations. An excellent effort for first stage appearance while continued performances will polish the movements and the diction.

Sebastian Green! The fine line dividing the ridiculous and the immensely funny was followed scrupulously by Ray Gray whose Chaplinesque comedy was a delight to see. With the skill displayed by Ray and Alex there is no doubt that the town may safely expect to enjoy further delights in the future while other members of the cast must gain from their presence.

Vladimir Previtch (Ben van Gasteren) looked the part of a visiting Russian Trade delegate with his only weakness, a tendency to lose volume and pace. A good effort first time on stage. It augurs well for the Drama Group that new actors are being found while the marring loss of clarity and slowness of lines will be overcome. Another find for the group is Carrie Motley, whose interpretation of Petri Garanakdva warmed up well, displaying an excellent diction, stage presence and accent.

The entry of 2 Eskimoes formed a suitable ending to an outstanding family entertainment. Thank you Drama Group! ("One of the Audience")

REPORTS ON THE 11th Oct. WEDDINGS

JURGEN ANDT/HELEN BRAND WEDDING

Many visitors travelled long distances to attend this happy wedding. The bride look in white crepe, cut on the empire line with a deep frill at the cuffs and hem. Darin Reid carried his sister's veil with confidence and looked very smart in his suit. Helen's 4 attendants - Julie, Jacky, Tracy and Betty were also dressed in white with blue flowers in their hair. They carried white furred parasols edged in blue satin, and their dresses contrasted with the men's dark pin stripe suits. The mother of the bride, Mrs Nell Reid, was very elegant in a long gown of floating chiffon in pastel shades and Mrs Andt wore a long brown skirt, topped with a most attractive silver threaded white blouse. The reception which was held in the Somerset Hotel was a very happy affair and many old acquaintances were renewed. The young couple then left for a motoring honeymoon through Vict.

JOHN DAULBY/KAREN HILL WEDDING

A great convoy of friends and relations travelled south for the wedding of this popular young couple who were wed in the Church of Christ, Gawler. Colin was certainly a very proud Father as he escorted his lovely daughter down the aisle in her long frock of white satin which was cut on very strict classical empire lines, and had a rever collar and long pointed lace sleeves. A half moon satin headpiece on the back of Karen's hair held her long one piece lace trimmed veil which fell over the magnificent long train of her frock. Karen and her attendants all carried beautiful fresh trailers of orchids and carnations and Karen's only other accessory was a single pearl drop necklace. Jacky Perkins and Jennifer Daulby attended Karen and looked very sweet in their bright canary yellow satin jersey, empire line dresses. A 'V' neckline and the short peplum sleeves were the outstanding features of their long formal gowns. Matching half moon head pieces, offset with Lily of the valley flowers completed their picture of complete loveliness. Looking very handsome, John and his attendants, brother Peter and Bill Corbett wore matching suits of chocolate brown with beige dress shirts and chocolate brown bow ties. Mother of the bride, Mrs Nan Hill looked very feminine in her long floral chiffon gown with its beautiful long flowing sleeves. Mrs Irene Daulby chose a short jacket dress of green/white and orange with bone accessories and looked very lovely. John & Karen are living at Darwin where John is station with the Police Force.

GARY FISHER/LEANNE GANGELL WEDDING

St Barbara's Church was beautifully decorated for this local wedding and the bride looked radiant as she entered the church on the arm of her Father in her gown of magnolia crepe with its long flowing train edged in lace. The bodice was pintucked with a 'V' neckline and the long sleeves were trimmed in contrasting lace. Leanne wore a long Mantilla to match and carried a lovely spray of cream flowers with brown velvet trailers and a prayer book. Her 3 bridesmaids - Chiara Sbona, Cathy Edwards and Therase Cunningham and flower girl Trudy Gangell all wore matching floral crepe frocks with long sleeves and a deep frill edging the skirt. The girls wore cream floppy hats with a brown chiffon tie from an orange rose. Their beautifully hand tinted posies toned in with their outfits. Attending the Groom were Mark McPherson, Graeme Williams and Ivan Vrankovic who wore Camel coloured suits trimmed with brown velvet. Their beige coloured shirts were finished off by a brown bow tie. For her going away outfit the Bride wore a lovely cream Satin slack suit with a blue floral blouse. She wore whisky coloured accessories. Their honeymoon was spent touring through the Blue Mountains to Sydney and their future home is in Seymour, Victoria where Gary is stationed with the Army at Puckapunyal. The Brides Mother chose a dusty pink tailored crepe suit with short sleeves and a cream self figured long sleeve blouse. Her accessories and shoulder spray were cream and pink. Mrs Jean Fisher, Mother of the groom, wore a frock and jacket of off-white self patterned crimplene with red accessories and a matching spray. Guests were entertained by the brides parents at the Community Hall where the CWA ladies catered for a delicious spread. MC duties were ably carried out by Mr Brian McPherson, after which the guest danced to Chris Fergusons' band.
