The Editress of TOPICS. (Last letter on this Dear Madam, (subject))

In answer to the Cinema complaints. It seems everybody blames each other, but evades the truth.

I see it as such:-

- 1) The small children insist that they wish to go to the toilet, so what is the usherette to do?
- b) The teenagers go out to talk or have a smoke. One girl was recently questioned by my wife for frequently leaving the hall and was given the old two finger sign for her troubles.
- c) Drinking and indecency coming from outside the theatre, and which is out of the hands of the usherette - report it.
- d) General hanging around the foyer and outside has always been a problem to those organising shows. In the past, there have been dances and social evenings arranged at the RSL Hall, the Old Bakery, the Youth Hall and the Church Hall and all have eventually flopped because the majority would sooner hang around outside.

The solution. If you don't like the picture, go out and STAY OUT so that others may enjoy it. If you hear or see indecent acts or language - REPORT IT. If you decide to stay outside then at least be quiet and orderly.

GOLF GABBER

The Management Committee thanks those Members who worked hard at our two Busy Does, so that every golfer can enjoy his/her game. A special "Thank You" to DON BRIGHT, who though not a member, did the bulk of the work with the front-end loader. It can truthfully be said in a Churchillian way, - never, ever, did so few, carry so many so far, for nix.

NEXT SUNDAY (27th) is the time to come along and get the 1977 Season-ball rollin' along smoothly. We've done the best we can to scrapes and toes, and as soon as sufficient rain falls, the fairways will be rolled.

Golf, more than any other sport, is essentially a game that depends on the complete honesty of participants. Many rules cover the numerous contingencies that arise during a 'round' but these rules can be easily circumnavigated by the determined cheat. Fortunately, we have no cheat problems, - but the bloke who can easily upset club-moral, is the guy who is careless with his scoring. When he says his score is 5 strokes, and you know damn-well it was 6, then tension starts, and happiness and tension cannot possibly co-exist anymore than light and darkness can co-exist. So let's always be careful and considerate to our play-mates.
