Since the last issue of TOPICS, there has emerged amongst us, in all their infinite sweet variety, the annual crop of under-standing and self-sacrificing WIDOWS, -- golf-widows, football-widows, basket-ball-widows etc. Like mushrooms they have appeared overnight with the commencement of the various sport-seasons.

History confirms that this blossoming of Sports-widows has been an annual event for hundreds of years. During the time of James IV they were almost transformed from 'annuals' to 'perennials' because the Lords and Barons of Scotland carried their sports activities to disconcerting extremes. They spent so much time improving their games that in 1491 an edict from James IV with pains and penalties annexed, ran as follows:-

"Futeball and Golfe forbidden Item, it is statut and ordainit that in no place of the realme there be usit futeball, golfe or uther sik unprofitabill sportis."

Sir Francis Drake was playing Bowls as the Spanish Armada was approaching the British coast with evil intent. When informed that the Spaniards were sighted off Land's End, he calmly finished his game. When he played, he played hard, when he worked he didn't play at all, as Phillip's Armada discovered during the ten-day battle which ensued.

Most will agree with the person who said, "A perfect wife is one who doesn't expect a perfect husband". After all, the MALE is only God's first model of Mankind and Biblical scholars believe that he was originally bisexual like a pumpkin vine. It is quite evident that the Creator added a lot of improvements to his second model - the FEMALE, so 'Fellas' if you think you're the GREATEST, remember - she's the LATEST. You can't get better than her until a third Model comes off the Creator's Assembly line. So Beware, take-care, PLAY FAIR, and above all, ALWAYS remember that famous limerick (which I composed five minutes ago):-

"There was a young fellow named Rolf, Who spent his week-ends playing Golf.
He got into strife,
With his LONELY young wife,
When she chopped up his balls with a knife",

By the way, - as you rushed off to your favourite sport last week-end did your wife have to implore, "Can't I have that half-hearted peck you call a kiss?". If she had to, - BROTHER you're not d-r-i-f-t-i-n-g into strife, you are under FULL - SALE.

MARIGNY HAIR STYLING COMPETITION

After a week of rather gloomy news in town, it was a thrilling and very proud moment for L.C. when model No.
34 of Heat 3 was announced 'THE - WINNER'. The hair stylist of course was our "Jackie" of Jacquelines Hair Stylists and Julie her model. There were 3 heats of 8 contestants and one of 7. Each stylist was asked to create a style suitable for Day wear and it appears this is where a lot of contestants lost points. Some styles were too "way-out" or complicated, or suitable more for evening wear. Our girls had put in a lot of after-hours practice and it certainly paid off. As Jackie's heat had some of the leading hair stylists in the laide (men & women) it is certainly a credit to her. This now means that the two "J's" will be flown to Melbourne by jet on Saturday May 29th where they will board the Lloyd Triestino ship the 'Marsani'. (cont....)
