PRUNING

The group of plants that loose all their leaves in winter are referred to as deciduous. They have usually come from cold to cold temperature regions of the world where they frequently experience very cold Winters, with frosts and snow. Soft leafy plants have difficulty surviving in this type of environment as the water in each of the tiny leaf cells expands and burst the cells on freezing. This is the same as happens to water pipes in winter or a bottle of beer left in the freezer. Over millions of years plants that live in this type of environment developed a protection against the cold, by throwing off all their soft leaves before the temperature drops low enough to kill them. Before it drops its leaves, it moves most of the plant food in its leaves back into the woody stems and roots, then slows down its system and goes to sleep. The woody stems and roots contain little water & their cells are thick and can withstand the winter quite OK.

With all the stored food in the woody parts of the plant, and the plant almost asleep, this is the time to prune these plants. They should not be pruned before all the leaves are gone, as they are not ready to heal the wounds and nor are they asleep. Dormancy is like an anaesthetic. Please don't operate on

FRIDAY, SATURDAY

The following books have been recently added to the shelves - pop in to the Library (at the side of the Community Hall) and have a browse through them.

THE MAN WITH NO SHADOW by Stephen Marlow. Assassins, Blackmail and Bull fights in contemporary Spain to make up this novel of suspense.

WILD CARD by Raymond Hawkey & Roger Bingham. When scientists are brought together to create a threatening new life form we have a novel impossible to put down, and one which strikes a chilling note of truth.

THE MILLIONAIRE'S DAUGHTER by Dorothy Eden. Set in London & New York and spanning two generations, this is a book to hold the reader's interest throughout.

GLAND..... TIME by Don Townshend. Enormously funny is this book set in Tasmania - this is true comic talent.

THE COAST OF FEAR by Leslie Maller. An exotic tourest paradise in the sun.

STAND BEFORE THE KINGS by F Van Wyck Mason is a tremendously exciting novel of the great days of piracy and privateering in the seventeenth century.

KNIGHTS ACRE by Norah Lofts is a novel of late fifteenth century adventure in England and Spain. A fitting successor to the Authors many novels.

IMAGES OF ROSE by Anna Gilbert. Into a tranquil home in the 1880's comes mystery and menace to hold you to the last page.

THE YEARS OF THE HUNGRY TIGER by John Gordon Davis is a novel of modern Hong Kong. A novel of passion and turbulence on the grand scale.

IF BEALE STREET COULD SPEAK by James Balwin. A love story, also a very topical novel set in New York concerning the colour problem.

THE ATTORNEY by Harold Q Masin. A spell binding courtroom scene and a poignant love story combines to give a novel to keep you reading all night.

During this weekend, Members H Herde, A Gibson, L Dorton, N Mausolf, J Reid, B Reye were playing at the Cleve Golf Club Inc. Open Championships and acquitted themselves very well. Our Club won 5 trophies including the Men's Foursomes on Saturday and the 28 Hole event on Sunday.

SUNDAY - 1/ 6/75 LC-V's HAWKER (Stableford)

In ideal weather, both teams went forth to battle for victory in friendly, convivial Spirits .. although I did notice an empty Invalid Portbottle along the glen of the Course.

These Hawker men are the most obliging fellows; your wish is their command, for example, when Jack Nobis was facing a 15' putt, I remarked, "You'll do it Jack, that's your favourite distance" and he promptly obliged with one putt. Later, with his ball 50' from the hole, Jack mistakenly took out his putter instead of No. 7 Chipper; so, trying to help LC I said, "Don't be satisfied with your 15' putt Jack, make this a 50' putt", and he obliged again, smacking the ball into the hole straight through the front door. I promptly shut my big mouth and threw away the key, because Jack Nicklaus' mere 40' putt made news headlines and earned him thousands of dollars.

Anyhow, everybody enjoyed the game, it was a close, exciting finish; both Teams running neck to neck down the home stretch, with LC winning by a mere whisker; probably because Les Mounce had forgotten to have a shave - thanks Les.
RESULT: Leigh Creek 537 pts D HAWKER 536 pts.

Contributing greatly to the success of the day, was the friendly, warm efficient catering by our Assoc Ladies. On arrival, guests & locals were immediately captured by beckoning waves of exquisite coffee and tea aroma; and the 'SPREAD' after play was a magnificent spectacle which sent the gastric juices trickling from every gastric follicle in our stomachs, - "how infinite is woman's sweet variety, .. thank God." Be assured Ladies, that the memory of your efforts is repeated with praise and benediction in Hawker and LC.

A special "THANK YOU" also to our Bar-men Bob & Bluey, who were right 'on the ball' throughout the day.

REMEMBER NEXT SUNDAY - 1st CHAMP. QUALIFYING ROUND - STROKE.

Brothers' TERRY (Katherine) and ALAN (Queensland) FUCHS will complete the family picture when Sister SHARON CORBELL marries JOHN GRACE at Port Aug. on Saturday, 7 June. We look forward to reading all about the big day in the next issue. Lots of joy and happiness to you both.

(PS: I was permitted a little peep at Sharon's beautiful (full length, white velvet, with heavy lace trim on the long sleeves, and around the edge of the hood) gown.)

We wonder, we wonder, if anyone knows, who drove his little car on the wrong side of the road.

It was at 3.am after fire-siren goes, that 'Snoopy' caught on his way to the 'drome.

To ALL CAPTAINS & UMPIRES (NETBALL)

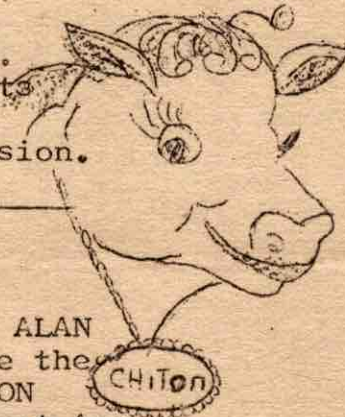

TONIGHT (Thursday, 5 June) at the Clubhouse, points of Umpiring will be discussed (please refer to the Netball notes in this issue for further information). If you are a CAPTAIN or an UMPIRE we would like you to attend this important meeting, commencing at 7.30pm, and conducted by Mr PETER BOULD.

We say "BON VOYAGE" and a very happy, pleasant and safe trip to:-

IRENE JEREMOL who departed for Poland last Tuesday morning. Irene will be visiting with her family in Poland and arrives back in Australia at the end of July.

ERNIE & BETTY WOOLDRIDGE who have departed for the UK. Ernie & Betty arrive back at Leigh Creek mid July.

We extend holiday greetings to TOM and ZELDA HATCH and girls who are presently holidaying with brother Ron & family. We trust your stay is a bright and restful (ha! ha!) one.

Approx. 40 friends gathered in the Yulu Lounge on Wednesday night for a farewell dinner to Peter (CHITON) and Jenny WALLS who depart for Adelaide this weekend. Presentations were made to Chiton from the Swimming Club Committee and friends in the form of glasses, a tablecloth with the Swimming Club emblem in the centre and signatures of those present on it, and a beautiful portrait of Chiton drawn by Kelvin Plumb. We wish Peter and Jenny the very best of luck in the 'big smoke'.

It is with deep regret that we record the tragic death of TREVOR CALLIS who was killed in a trucking accident at Lyndhurst on 31/ 5/75. We extend our sympathies to wife Joyce and daughter Natalie.
