JEANS JEANS JEANS

Have you been waiting on Jeans? Well, over 100 pairs arrived yesterday - both Scrub Blue and Denim. Get in on these as the cotton shortage will be with us for a while yet.

FATHERS DAY

Thought about it yet? What about this - A HAND HELD SPOTLIGHT 12V sealed beam, plugs into the cigarette lighter of your car. Just what Dad wants for those shooting trips and it is also very handy as a trouble light on night trips. ONLY 2 left and priced at just $14.50.

DOES YOUR CHILD LIKE BUILDING? ***

A large range of BRIX is now on show. These are packets of indestructable plastic bricks of varying sizes. Wheels, windows, roof bricks etc. All packed in different packets to allow you to get lots of bricks, 1 set of wheels and so on. These are educational and just the thing for keeping Junior quiet (of course Mum has to pick up bricks afterwards) - still the peace and quiet is terrific. All sets are priced at $1.25 and the popularity of these is such that supplies are always short. XMAS IS NOT FAR OFF!!

LADIES BLACK SANDSHOES

Have finally arrived - sizes 2½ - 6½. They wont last long.

SPECIALS

Have you looked at our rack of LADIES WINTER FROCK specials lately? Prices are ridiculous as we have chopped into the remaining few heavily.

SOUVENIR TEATOWELS

Our new stocks of these are here with lovely Australian scenes printed on them with 'Greetings from Leigh Creek' overprinted on each. Some have a local map showing Leigh Creek, Flinders, Maree etc. Priced at $1.20 - they are light and easy to send overseas.

PRESIDENTS NOTE

Last Sunday was the first time I had watched the Mini League Matches. I was disgusted at the behaviour of the MAJORITY of the players. The bickering, arguing and baiting of other team members and opposing team players was almost unbelievable. Arguing and back answering the Umpire seemed the rule of the day. The Umpires, Scorers and Coaches give up their time so that YOU can play Softball - all of them have other interests which could easily fill this time. Unless a lot more respect is shown to these people they will no doubt follow these more profitable interests.

In future any misbehaving on the field will result in the suspension of the players and consequent forfeit of the team. This will be the decision of the Umpire. It appears that this drastic action is necessary and has been brought about solely by yourselves.

REMEMBER! The decision of the Umpire is final - in ALL cases.

Punctuality is essential - unless teams are ready to play at the appointed times, forfeits will result. This rule will be enforced.

DON'T LET YOUR TEAM DOWN.

On Sunday July 22, sixteen players journeyed to Hawker for a return Stableford game with that Club. The conditions were ideal and the green mown fairways made the course in the best condition most of us have ever seen it. Leigh Creek did not score well as expected and the final results were a win to Hawker by 900 points to 860 points.

Best players for LC were WATSON 37 pts, DORTON 31 pts, PENGILLY 30 pts.

At home on this day, seven players played a "One-stick" stroke game. DAVES being the better "B" grader with a net 91 and HOOPER the best "C" grader with net 95.

July 29

Thirty players and one junior turned out to play in the PAR game combined with the 3rd Championship qualifying round, which is just about a record for an ordinary Sunday game. John DAULEY was outstanding with a result of 3 up, with another good score by WATSON - all square.

Best Grade Scores

'A' - TAYLOR - 2 down, c/back from Zeicmanis - 2 down.
PENGILLY - 3 down

(cont..)

- 'B' DAULBY - 3 up, Watson-square, Dejanovic - 2 down/count back.
- 'C' RAPPOLD - 4 down, Smith - 8 d, Rantall - 10 down on c/back.

Best off Stick

- 'A' - Ellis 83, 'B' Daulby - Craigie both 89.
- 'C' - Rappold - T Flynn both 113.

August 5

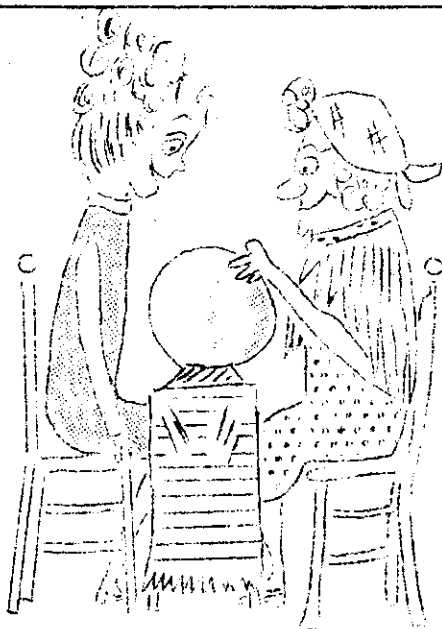

There will be a Stoke game for all players not involved in Championship play-offs on that day. Hit-off at usual time.

MEN - NO appointments are necessary

It is with very deep regret that we record the death of JAMES (Jim) DINGWALL - Wallaroo (23/7). Jim has left a legacy of friends and articles (per 'Topics') at Leigh Creek and below is his last letter to his LC buddies written in the true Dingwall style.

"Dear Ron and all my other alcoholic mates of the Round Table, This near-Utopian existence in Pensioner's Paradise is not all it's cracked up to be ... I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH MYSELF ALL DAY.

Take for instance my daily routine. (I nearly said drudge). I get up every morning promptly at ten-o'clock. This I think must be by force of habit protracted from my years in Leigh Creek when Rufus used to rouse me from my work with a cup of tea at 10.am five days a week. After a cup of black coffee, laced with a little brandy as an eye-opener (in a house as small & compact as mine, it would be dangerous to walk about with one's eyes closed), the busiest part of my day begins. The household chores; a make-shift meal to prepare; shave & shower etc. And all this to be done in a couple of hours, mind you the midday movie on TV starts at noon.

By the time "Beauty & the Beast" finishes at 4.pm., I am so overwhelmed by a 'cut-my-throat-any-tick-of-the-clock' mood that I often force myself to clean my teeth, put on a clean shirt, and wend my weary and melancholy way to the Temple of Conviviality where the jaundiced eye soon takes on a rosier hue.

In the evenings, after a frugal supper of bread and dripping followed by black coffee unlaced with brandy (cont.

- I am wide awake by now - I settle down to a few hours of sheer boredom watching TV during which time I make not infrequent excursions to the fridge. Man cannot live by bread alone!

And so to bed.

And there you have it. One miserable day after another. When you compare my lot with those poor devils in Siberia, Devil's Island and Belfast, I suppose I shouldn't winge. Still but I must stop now, the wheels on wheels van has just pulled up outside my front gate.

Yours,
In the Slough of Despondency

JIMMY DINGWALL

CWA CWA CWA - REPORT

Meeting held on 26 July was well attended with 25 members answering the Roll Call with varying suggestions on the best ways of keeping warm. Six visitors were also present, among these were Flinders' Group President, Mrs Byerlee, Group Handicraft Secretary, Mrs Ward, and Mrs Gaghan from Quorn. These ladies brought with them an interesting display of handicrafts and a keen group of LC ladies were taught these new crafts on Friday 27 and Saturday 28 in the Supper room. Seven members were able to join Blinman for their Birthday party on July 5 and spent a very enjoyable day. The Pasty Stall held on July 20 was also very successful in raising funds for the Library. Competitions during the evening were again well supported, the first being for a Button Hook and the second - six citrus fruits which were auctioned after judging. A lovely supper was provided by members after the close of this meeting.

The games next Saturday are important to all teams but the most important one would be the game between the GREENS and REDS. Who-ever looses this one must put the uniforms away until next season.

Who will win it? Let's have a look at the teams.

GREENS will be at full strength for this vital match while the REDS will be without Val Lennon. This is a point in favour of the Greens who I think will be more settled. Defences on both sides are good so I think the match will be won under the goal ring. Judy Hatch and Aunty Bev are combining well lately and will take a power of stopping. Up the other end we will see Sue Taylor and, I think, the Red Skipper. Sue has been doing everything that has been asked of her and is always a danger and I know she will get plenty of backing from the Captain. However, one cannot help but think that this could be asking too much of Sue, because for the Reds to win, she will have to be right on target for 4 quarters of netball. Is she ready for this kind of heavy pressure yet?

Looking at these points, I am going for Greens, but I won't be at all surprised if the Reds do pull this one out of the fire.

* BEST OF LUCK TO BOTH TEAMS*

The DEMONS will face the powerful BLACKS without two of their star players - Sweetie Fee and Bikini Ward. I tip that they cannot afford to be without these two key players and expect to beat the Blacks,... I go for the Blacks for this one.

If my predictions are correct then the Greens will meet the Orange the following Saturday. Without knowing the 'line-up' and presuming that both meet at full strength, and IF the Orange can maintain 4 quarters of Netball at the same pace as they generally start with, then I'll go for them to toss the Greens.

I would like to wish all teams partaking in the FINAL ROUND, the best of luck and girls' - play it hard, but remember - PLAY IT FAIR ALSO.

Your devoted fan,

"Windbag"
